Accreditation Status Of Audit Service Providers

Provisional Accreditation

The following organization has been granted provisional accreditation by COS and is authorized to conduct SEMS audits pursuant to 30 CFR 250 Subpart S. An ASP with provisional accreditation has completed an application, successfully undergone a COS office assessment and needs to complete the required COS witness assessment. An ASP with provisional accreditation may conduct SEMS audits but cannot issue SEMS certificates until successful completion of the required witness audit.

Organization With Provisional Accreditation	Contact	Phone	Email	Date Granted
AcuTech Consulting Group	Michael Hazzan	856-217-1599	mhazzan@acutech-consulting.com	9-7-2016

Applicants

No other organization has an application in process with COS. To be considered for accreditation, applicants must submit documents demonstrating that procedures are in place for managing the overall SEMS audit process. COS reviews the application materials to assure that they meet the requirements for SEMS audits pursuant to 30 CFR 250 Subpart S, API RP 75 and COS documents. The organization must respond to any nonconformities, and upon demonstration that all the required procedures are in place, the application is deemed complete and COS conducts an Office Assessment.
